Unlimited opportunities, unparalleled access...

USA-Kansas values its relationship with vendors and corporate partners. We recognize and applaud your commitment to supporting education in Kansas. Our organization remains committed to working with districts and our business partners to ensure a future of well-educated young adults ready to help Kansas grow.

In recognizing the critical role your business plays in supporting education and the economy, we are pleased to extend this invitation to partner with USA-Kansas and administrators through our Affiliate Membership program for businesses and organizations.

Access to decision-makers

Our Affiliate Membership Program and corporate sponsorship opportunities offer ways to communicate and interact with school administrators throughout Kansas.

Each year, our administrators spend millions of dollars for products and services for their districts. They are responsible for the acquisition of instructional technology services and materials, textbooks, administrative services, building maintenance, transportation services, food services, and more.

Affiliate Membership Program

The USA-Kansas Affiliate Membership Program offers opportunities to expand your professional network through enhanced communication, interaction, and access to administrators. This program allows businesses to establish name recognition among those education administrators with purchasing authority.

As an affiliate member, businesses and organizations are eligible to:

- Advertise in the USA-Kansas newsletters and publications
- Advertise in the USA-Kansas annual directory
- Exhibit at the USA-Kansas annual convention

Corporate Sponsorship

Businesses and organizations interested in a more comprehensive, targeted year-long marketing and outreach program may be interested in our Corporate Sponsorship Program. This is ideal for businesses who want to:

- Position themselves in front of key decision-makers in Kansas schools at conventions and workshops throughout the year
- Receive complimentary or discounted advertising in USA-Kansas publications, the annual directory, the USA-Kansas website, and other printed and online publications
- Save on convention-related expenditures
- Create a custom package of advertising options
